Story

Dee Dee waited outside of her school for her mother to pick her up.

When she arrived, Mommy Jenny could tell that Dee Dee did not have a good day at school. She was not smiling and waving like her normal self.

"They said my hair was too big and too curly. They were even asking to touch it and that made me really sad," said Dee Dee.

“Your hair is part of who you are” says Mommy Jenny,
“and it says so much about your personality.”

Dee Dee can't believe she almost allowed the kids at school to alter how she feels about her hair.

“You are right Mommy,” said Dee Dee, “I love my hair!”

“Remember to always keep your head held high. Your hair is your crown and you are my princess,” said Mommy Jenny.

Dee Dee knows she will never doubt the love for her hair again.
